I'm Very Fond Of Dancing.

SONG AND DANCE OR INSTRUMENTAL

DUET.

Symphony.

By GEO. H. COES.

1st Banjo.

2d Banjo.

1. I'm very fond of dancing, a fancy Jig or Reel, To music so en-tran - cing I work the toe and heel, The po - et - ry of motion, I stu - dy to excel, My soul is all de-votion to the art I love so well, Birds of spring, chirp and sing.

2. A Devotee of fashion, the leader of the day I always am in-vi - ted to the soi-rees of the gay With girls of ed - u - ca-tion, I of - ten pass my time In singing with the Banjo all the songs which are sublime

Merrily, cher-ri-ly, hap-py seem to be, So will I, ev-er try, For mus-ic hath its charms for me. Mark time and measure every note,

That's the per-fect mode of ex-e-cu-tion, Strike light the strings upon the Banjo, And I'm hap-py as the day is long. long.
